Sub:- Regarding Validity of the Arms Licences.

PUBLIC NOTICE

This is for the information of all the Arms licence holders who have either got their licenses issued from the Licensing Authority Samba or have got the licenses issued by other Licensing Authority and renewed by the Licensing Authority Samba, that the details of their gun licenses are to be uploaded through the software prepared by the National Informatics Centre (NIC) in the National Database of Arms Licence on the Website of Ministry of Home Affairs and for this purpose a Unique Identification Number is generated for each licence.

In case, the Arms license is not uploaded as per the procedure mentioned above, then the said Arms licenses shall be considered invalid with effect from 1st of October, 2015 in terms of Rule 54 of Arms Rules, 1962. For the compliance of this statutory requirement, the Arms licenses issued by this office are being uploaded by National Informatics Centre (NIC) Samba in the office complex of Deputy Commissioner Samba.

Therefore, all the license holders shall immediately approach in the Office of District Informatics Officer (NIC) Samba to get their Arms licence uploaded on MHA website by or before 30-09-2015. The licence holders, whose licence has been issued by other Licensing Authority but are renewed by this office are advised to immediately approach their concerned license issuing authority for getting their license uploaded online.

After expiry of the scheduled date, licenses issued from this office shall not be uploaded on MHA Website and law shall take its own course against such license holders. In case of failure to get the license uploaded by due date, the weapon shall have to be deposited with concerned police station as possession of the same would become illegal.
